Yale University acknowledges that indigenous peoples and nations, including Mohegan, Mashantucket Pequot, Eastern Pequot, Schaghticoke, Golden Hill Paugussett, Niantic, and the Quinnipiac and other Algonquian speaking peoples, have stewarded through generations the lands and waterways of what is now the state of Connecticut. We honor and respect the enduring relationship that exists between these peoples and nations and this land.
An die Musik

Franz Schubert (1797–1828)
Text by Franz von Schober (1796–1882)
Translation by Richard Cross

Massig

Oh Glorious
A tender

art how oft in life’s dark hours whisper spoken by your lyre

Enslaved within my life’s unyielding grasp.
A sweet and holy chord, which spoken to me

’Tis you who kindled within where my soul shall find its rest That guides me to a better world above to a better world above my thanks to you Oh glorious music my thanks to bove. you.
