

Discuss Financial Life After Yale with Branford College Resident Fellow Steve Blum.

- How do I plan for the long run?
- How can I improve how I save/invest?
- What rules of thumb might help me?
- Tell me more about ETFs, IRAs, HSAs, Roth 401k's and all those acronyms!
- How do I build my credit score?
- How can I make more $ by freelancing?

If you've ever been curious about any of the above, you won't want to miss this session!

Want to come? Just:

Financial Life After Yale

Wed, Apr 5 (430/6pm)
Rose Alumni House
232 York Street

RSVP now!

Yale Resident Fellow Steve Blum is also a CPA and former investment banker. A loyal alum and Yale parent, Steve joined Yale full-time as Senior Director of Strategic Initiatives of the Association of Yale Alumni. Steve facilitates Leadership workshops; co-founded STAY (Students and Alumni of Yale); and directs Careers, Life, and Yale programs and events (go to www.careerslifeyale.org). With Astrid Baumgradner, Steve and fellow alum, John Caserta will discuss a special interest of theirs: financial literacy.
